The film, called "Bus Ride," depicts ruthless striking of cancer among casual riders of busses. The April residential drive was planned this year by Mrs. Marzano and her committee.

Woman's Club Holds Headdress Fantasy

Torrance Woman's Club will stage its sixth annual Headdress Fantasy on May 2. Festivities will begin with a social hour at the home of Mrs. John Tweedy, 1325 Arlington, at 11:30 a.m. Judging of the hat creations will be at the Tweedy home, followed by luncheon at the clubhouse at 1 p.m.

The theme this year is oriental. There will be four categories: Theme; fresh flowers, fruits, vegetables; most beautiful; most original. Thus, only one category need be in the fresh flowers, etc. The sweepstakes prize will be selected from any of the four.

Carrying out the theme will be the program. Lee Young, an oriental novelty singer, will appear on the stage as an added attraction. He recently appeared at the Marina District 18 convention.

Mrs. F. M. Shaw, ways and means chairman, and Mrs. H. E. Barbey, decorations chairman, are working on advance arrangements. Taking reservations are Mmes. E. G. Laughney, H. W. Bowman, and Ervin Moudy.

A rummage sale featuring clothing for the entire family is being held Friday, April 27, at the Torrance Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia. Doors will be open to the public at 10 a.m.

Bible Series Begins

Preparations are underway by members of the Redondo Beach Church of Christ, for the forthcoming Bible lecture series.

The series will be presented by Evangelist William S. Banowsky, at the church building, 6122 Pacific Coast Highway, Hollywood Riviera, each evening at 7:30 p.m., the week of May 6 through May 13.

"This series of sermons is designed especially to help our friends and neighbors understand more fully the nature and mission of the church here at Redondo Beach," Dr. Warren S. Jones, minister of the congregation, said today.

ANNOUNCEMENTS
"Announcements of the series are being made each Saturday to cover one thousand homes in our neighborhood by the men and young adults of the church," Jones continued, "each former visitor will receive a personal invitation by telephone as well as a weekly reminder in the mail."

"These efforts are being made to encourage the public, our friends, and neighbors to attend this series which is being presented in the interest of undenominational Christianity," Dr. Jones continued, "and we hope to have capacity crowds at all of the services."

Toastmasters Subject to Criticism

Toastmastering, long regarded as the most effective means of learning public speaking, was subject to severe criticism last Wednesday evening at the hands of members of Southbay Toastmaster's Club 280.

The attack, as stated by newly elected club president James McDonald of Manhattan Beach, "is part of a concerted effort on our part to improve our methods of learning public speaking."

President McDonald got the criticism he'd called for from many of the newer members of the club as well as from such long standing toastmasters as Dr. Seaman of Manhattan Beach and Ferdinand Strible of Redondo Beach.

Dr. Seaman stressed that Toastmastering can't merely be fun, but must also be educational, while Strible pointed out that the speech evaluation portions of the programs must be something more than a patting on the backs of fellow members.

Following the criticism of the program was a series of speeches made by the newly elected officers of the club.

Such officers as administrative vice-president Dr. Wilmet Labit of Waleria; educational vice-president James Ripley of Redondo Beach; secretary Don Payne of Torrance; and Sergeant at arms Colin Dunn of Torrance, spoke in answer to some of the criticism and stated how they planned to make their various offices contribute to the overall aims of the club.

President McDonald ended the evening on the optimistic note of the coming improvements and reminded the members that they were in for an interesting session at the following Wednesday evening's meeting which will feature five member-speakers talking on salesmanship.

Divine Guidance Aids Man, Says Christ-Scientist

How divine guidance aids him." Mary Baker Eddy declares in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," "The way is straight and narrow, which leads to the understanding that God is the only Life. It is a warfare with the flesh, in which we must conquer sin, sickness, and death, either here or hereafter,—certainly before we can reach the goal of Spirit, or life in God."

The Golden Text is from James (1:12), "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him."

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Probation After Death" will include these words of the Psalmist, "As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the Lord is tried; he is a buckler to all those that trust in him. . . . It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect" (18:30, 32).
